People do not choose where we born, neither opportunities we have, and sometimes where to grow. The majority of the kind of social services of Fuenlabrada has been set aside for Spanish population. The economic contribution of foreign people is higher than the generating spending. Immigrants are not responsible for unemployment. Chinese merchants pay the same tax as the Spanish and offer a promptly service to the neighbour hood. Diversity enriches our cities and it is positive. Being in the town with the same level. Coexistence with other cultures must be part of their learning.
